

Editorial

The Editorial Board of International Review of Human Rights Law is pleased to present the Fourth Issue of the journal. This issue has four papers. The papers deal with Nikah Halala, Non-Refoulment as a tool to fight Rendition in African continent, Treatment of Religious attires by European courts and Repatriation of Human Trafficking Victims in SAARC region.

This issue has focused on issues related to rights of women, right to express religion, rights of human trafficking victims and issues concerning repatriation of human trafficking victims. While dealing with the issues the regional context has been of Indian, European, SAARC and African region, respectively.

We are thankful to the authors of the fourth issue. Please send us your valuable comments.

Thank you